

Story continues....

During his work with Compassion, he developed a deep love for the people of Bolivia and started volunteering with several of the partner churches of Compassion in Bolivia.

While in Bolivia, Kees noticed that the real poverty they suffered from was spiritual. So, he is going back to Bolivia to start a house-church planting movement, beginning in the city of Cochabamba.

The goal is to have small quickly reproducible house-churches all over Bolivia. This will result in all of Bolivia being reached with the Gospel in the next three to five years. After Bolivia is reached with the Gospel, he is planning to continue this same pattern in other Latin American countries.

Will you prayerfully consider joining my team in spreading the Gospel in Bolivia? I need prayer and financial teammates who will enable me to carry out the vision God has given me.

Kees Boer

Serving in Bolivia

Kees Boer is originally from the Netherlands. He spent his teenage years doing ministry aboard about 1000 merchant ships from over 80 countries. After graduating from Florida Bible College, he worked for several decades with a campus church at the University of Florida in Gainesville, FL.

In the last seven years, he functioned as a volunteer coordinator with Compassion International and found sponsors for around 500 children.

About Commission To Every Nation

What is CTEN?

CTEN is a servant organization which helps missionaries fulfill the unique vision God has given them. CTEN partners with the missionary's home church to send them to the field. Then, through administrative support CTEN gets funds to the missionary, provides accountability, counsel and helps the missionary remain on the field. Through pastoral care CTEN helps them remain effective and healthy while there.

Missionaries Serving Missionaries

Most of CTEN's home staff raise their own support just as each CTEN Field Missionary does. This allows CTEN to keep overhead to a bare minimum and the vast majority of each donor's contribution to reach the intended missionary and project.

Pastoral Care

A core value of CTEN is caring for God's most valued resource, His people. A Pastoral Care couple personally stays in touch with each missionary from the time of their application, throughout their time on the field and through re-entry to the home culture if the missionary leaves the field. This pastoral care couple works with the missionary's sending church to provide counsel, prayer, support and regular onsite visits to the field of service.

How CTEN missionaries are "paid"?

Like most of its support staff, CTEN missionaries are dependent upon the faithfulness of the Lord and His people for their financial support. Friends, family, churches and others who believe in the work of the missionary send their contributions to CTEN. These contributions can be large or small, sent monthly or periodically.

Each missionary is dependent upon your help to fund and continue their ministry.

How does CTEN afford to operate?

A co-laboring percentage is prayerfully determined individually by each missionary enabling CTEN to continue to serve them.

More Information

Our Statement of Faith, audited financial statements for CTEN USA and more is available online at: www.cten.org/about.

CTEN Canada

To help Canadians go to the field we now have a sister organization. Find out about it at: www.ctenc.ca.
